After a decade of helping our wounded warriors overcome the physical, mental, and emotional scars from their service, Combat Wounded Coalition will be closing our doors early in 2019.

The charity has helped thousands of warriors and their families across America since our inception in 2009. We started with four key objectives:

- Restore PRIDE the warriors had in their service to this great nation
- Provide the POWER they need to go forth in the civilian world
- Discover PURPOSE in their new lives
- Find PEACE with themselves, with their families and with their communities

We accomplished this with several innovative programs that included Wounded WearSM clothing and modifications, Toast to the Heroes Gala, Jumping for a PurposeSM events and our latest program, Overcome AcademySM. Along our journey we have helped our warriors and Gold Star families not only with our own programs but have facilitated connections to many other services that assisted them in a variety of ways. Always being sensitive to the wounds of their service, we have strived to leave each warrior a better person than when they entered our world.

While we trust that our services and programs have had the positive impact intended, we can guarantee that the warriors we have met along the way have left us better people. Hearing their stories, feeling their pain, listening to their hopes and dreams have given us a perspective that never would have been possible without these brave men and women. We are grateful to every one of them for touching our lives in such a positive way and making us stronger people. Interacting with such brave and resilient warriors have filled us with hope for the future of America.

We will forever be in debt of those donors, sponsors, volunteers and employees of the charity that made all this possible. Giving of their time, their talent and their treasure have allowed everything we accomplished possible. Your friendship, ideas and resources have impacted and shaped our own future and we can never say thank you enough.

But all journeys have a beginning and an end. As our lives and circumstances change, as our families grow, and our professional desires evolve, we have decided it is best to close the door on a very high note and only look back fondly on the past decade. We proudly leave knowing we have helped people in need, strengthened our communities and made America a better place. Again, we say thank you to all that have touched our lives in such a positive way.

God bless our service men and women who have allowed us to live in this free country. For their service we will always be indebted.
